

Suggested Itinerary: Foodies

Sample, sip and savor the flavors the Erie region has to offer and journey through its diverse culinary scene. From fine dining to casual, family friendly to fusion, there is a cuisine or a crafted beverage to pair with every palate.

DAY ONE

Eat: The Brewerie at Union Station

Located inside a functioning train station, Brewerie combines a real historic atmosphere with fantastic food and a wide selection of handcrafted brews.

Eat More: Sara's Diner

A fun, 50's style hangout known for their towering orange and vanilla twists, foot-long Smith brand hot dogs, and thick, frothy milkshakes. Sara's is open April 1 to September 30.

Keep Eating: Flagship City Food Hall

Hailed as "the community's dining room", the Food Hall is home to nine local vendors with dishes spanning the globe from Dominican and soul food to Italian and noodles.

Lodging Option: Sheraton Erie Bayfront Hotel

DAY TWO

Eat: Bay House Oyster Bar & Restaurant

Discover a unique experience with breathtaking views and a Sunday brunch menu filled with traditional and creative menu items.

Visit: Romolo Chocolates

One of Erie's premier chocolatiers, Romolo satisfies every sweet tooth with tempting confections such as sponge candy, chocolate-covered grapes, and assorted truffles.

Sip: Cart/Horse Distilling

One of six area distilleries, Cart/Horse features a wide variety of spirits and cocktails in nearby Edinboro.

To book your group tour, contact:
Janice Friedrichsmeyer, (814) 454-1000

